

Markham Waxer Minor Peewee AAA

Congratulations to the Markham Waxer Minor Peewee AAA Team who won the 2009 Reebok Little Caesars Fall Squirt Invitational Datsyuk Conference.

The Minor Peewee team travelled to Troy, Michigan to compete in the Reebok Little Caesars Fall Squirt Invitational Tournament this past weekend and were among 40 teams competing for the AAA Championship.

The Waxer boys played like a well-oiled machine as they faced a number of highly competitive teams including the Buffalo Regals and won 3-2 for their first game of the tournament. They then went on to face the Indianapolis Racers and tied 3-3. On the second day of the tournament, the Waxers competed against the Toronto Red Wings and walked away with a 5-1 win. The boys then went on to face the Wooster Blades of the Cleveland area and again, came away with a decisive win of 7-3.

The semi-finals against the South Central Coyotes from Richmond Hill gave them a win of 6-3. And in the finals, the Waxers competed against the Lambton Sting. Solid goal keeping and great offense and defense allowed them to take a decisive win. The Waxer boys rallied once again when they secured another victory and final championship win against the Lambton Sting with a final score of 5-0.

The Minor Peewee team tagline - Respect All, Fear None - was noted more this weekend than other times during the season, when one of the key teammates was removed in the second period from the Championship game due to an accidental injury.

All of the boys played hard with a goal in mind - Respecting all and Fearing None – and at all times with their teammate who was side lined in their minds...Boys you did the Waxer and Markham community proud this weekend. Well done Waxers.

The Minor Pee wee AAA team consists of: Jonathan Ang, Michael Cimini, Ryan Dunlop, Tyler Harvey, Ayden Hughes, Mitchell Martan, Joseph Mizzi, Justin Rabito, Dean Rayner, Cameron Searles, Brandon Sutch, Timmy Theocharidis, Adam Turner, Ryan Ward and Cameron Wingrove.
